3rd July 1956

News flashes

Yachting

Menthandra Thangbahaa markwadainathaa dhamala Yazhia Maria manta Yazha adula ant Edinburgha managa tadawa ata atha amar mathailling afarman ay mahking

Scotland: Not long after his arrival in the Royal Yacht "Britannia" the Duke of Edinburgh amount got down to the more thrilling form of yachting - competing in the international Clyde fortnight - in Rothesay Bay...

The Duke - an enthusiastic helmsman - was sailing "Coweslip" and gained fourth place in a race for "Flying Fifteens."

D.C.M. Heroes Deatrin No 2

London: Wer heroes meet again in London - this time to celebrate the Silver Jubilee of the Distinguished Conduct Medal League, when its founder, Mr R. Moyse, paid tribute to absent comrades.

Inspecting the Parade before taking the Salute at the march-past, Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother talked to many of the 176 holders present of the D.C.M., instituted by Queen Victoria - two years before the Victoria Cross.

Tattoo

At the White City, snother service occasion featured the Massed Bands of the Royal Marines, in the traditional ceremony of Beating Retreat.

This was the annual Searchlight Tattoo, and the musical jumping ride by the Royal Army Service Corps is a reminder that they still use horse transport in difficult terrain.

Association) brings to life a stirring page of military history, the heroic stand by the Scots Fusilier Guards during the battle of the River Alma, in the Crimean War.

amou