

Russian Woman Leader

At London Airport, the Soviet Ambassador, Mr Malik led the welcome to ~~Mrs~~ <sup>MADAME</sup> Ekaterina Furtseva, the world's most powerful woman Communist.

Irish Soap Box Derby

Ireland: Junior speed-kings whirl down Feltrim Hill, Malahide - competing in the 1956 All-Ireland Soap Box Derby. Eighty-three budding Grand Prix daredevils contested the forty heats - and here's the final, with Senior Champion, Alan Murray of Sligo, winning by a couple of lengths.

A hero's reception for young Alan - who must be a "chip off the old block". His father is Kevin Murray - the famous trials motorist.

Canadian Golf

~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~

Quebec: The Canadian Open Golf Championship was all teed up for visiting American professionals when along came an amateur, Doug Sanders of Miami Beach, sinking long putts <sup>just</sup> for the love of the thing!

From the edge of the green, Mike Fetchik answered the challenge - determined to go down fighting. He did!

But in a play-off against a professional, <sup>Doug Sanders held</sup> ~~he~~ that vital last putt to become the first amateur to win the title.

So while his rivals split up the prize-money, Doug hugged his new love - the Seagram Gold Cup.
