Marilyn arrives

London Airport: Down in the passenger list as "Mr and Mrs Miller" - a honeymoon couple arrive in Britain - to face the biggest headlines since ~~Frank~~ Caxton set up in business.

Yes, it's Marilyn Monroe arriving, with her playwright husband, Arthur Miller. ~~THE FLASHBULBS WERE POPPING FROM EVERY ANGLE, BUT MARILYN HAD NOTHING TO SAY FOR THE MICROPHONE.~~

Making her first visit, Marilyn is to film with Sir Laurence Olivier, who with his wife, Vivien Leigh, led the airport welcome - to the girl who knocked the cricket headlines for six!

Greek Earthquake

Greece: ~~tragedy~~ tragedy struck at the Aegean Islands, when an earthquake, followed by a tidal wave, trapped the sleeping inhabitants - causing heavy loss of life.

Worst hit was the island of Santorini - where more than half the buildings were demolished.

Food and medical supplies were rushed to the stricken islanders - who crowded into the fields to escape the terror of further tremors.

Motor racing

Silverstone: The prospect of a thrilling British-Italian duel attracted the fans - including the Duke of Kent.

And a starting roar heralds the British Grand Prix - sponsored by the Daily Express.

But after only twenty yards, Gonzalez (who flew from South America) was out with engine-trouble as Mike Hawthorne, in a B.R.M., took the lead. Then came disaster for Britain. Hawthorne retired. The Vanwalls dropped out - while another B.R.M. ~~was buried out.~~ ~~is the wrong direction.~~

Leading the Maserati team, Stirling Moss stayed out in front in this 315 mile race - until ~~frequent pit stops put him out of the running -~~ ~~with a split fuel tank.~~ ~~THE RUNNING.~~ ~~A SPLIT FUEL-TANK PUT HIM OUT OF THE RUNNING.~~

That cleared the way for the Ferraris. Juan Fangio came home first - followed by Peter Collins. ~~The~~ World champion, Fangio averaged 98.65 miles per hour, and ~~was~~ ~~back~~

~~back~~ ~~was right in the running for that world title.~~
