

Making up ~~the~~ for that lack of sunshine, Britain's Olympic hopes extended a warm welcome to track stars from Czechoslovakia, in a match sponsored by the "News of the World" /S

And for the spectators, there were some dazzling performances. Just watch 18 year-old John Young (in the 3rd <sup>From THE CAMERA</sup> lane) confirming his ~~A.A.A.~~ A.A.A. Championships form, by winning the 100 yards from team-mate Eric Sandstrom, in ten seconds dead.

(3A's)

Great show, John, get those bags packed for Melbourne /S

The International Mile featured an old Czech favourite, S. Jungwirth - (No. 1) - who beat Roger Bannister here. But once again, Ken Wood (No. 4) proved himself the master-tactician - swooping on the Czech star to win by a yard, in 4 minutes three-point-eight seconds. (3)

Looking thoroughly at home in the conditions, Welshman John Disley - (No. 2) won an exciting duel with Chris Brasher, in the Three Thousand Metres <sup>steeplechase</sup>. Both men shattered the British All-Comers record. /

But here's one man, anyway, who has happy memories of the Bank Holiday. - Derek Ibbotson, the Three Miles Star - who raced away from his rivals to win that event. (2)

But the Emsley Carr Mile brought ~~a~~ <sup>him</sup> greater triumph - a time of 3 mins. 59.4 seconds... So, amid congratulations, he joined Bannister, Chataway, and Hewson, as ~~Britain's~~ <sup>another British</sup> Four-Minute Milers. / OVER TO THE

~~The~~ crowded Olympic Stadium, in Berlin, for another breathtaking ~~athletic~~ performance. Private W. Williams of the U.S. Army, (running in an International Tournament) covers the 100 metres in 10.1 seconds, shattering the famous Jesse Owens' 1936 World Record.

And Williams did the same incredible time to win the final. /

On the Welsh border, a parade of ~~athletes~~ <sup>OTHER CHAMPIONS</sup> in the Oswestry Show - with more meat than mileage beneath their collar. (2)

"Yes, my dear, just the type for field-events, plenty of beef."

Though there was one competitor who was ready to show a clean pair of heels to any human. ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~

~~Another highlight~~ <sup>AND</sup> was a motor-cycle display by the Royal Corps of Signals. /