Royal Children sail North-

Aug 10th. '56.

London-- With their nursery days <sup>WELL BEHIND THEM,</sup> almost forgotten, two dignified young travellers- Prince Charles and Princess Anne- arrived at Waterloo, to join the Royal Yacht Britannia at Southampton- for a week's cruise to Scotland's Western Isles. /s

SUMMER HOLIDAY

And with the guard's "Right Away", the first stage of their exciting ~~journey~~ had begun. /

Meanwhile, <sup>the</sup> "Britannia" lay off Cowes, where the Regatta was in full swing; and ~~the Duke of Edinburgh~~ <sup>THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH - SEEN WITH KING FEISAL</sup>

~~AND YACHTSMAN UFFA FOX,~~

~~the Duke of Edinburgh~~ <sup>YACHTSMAN</sup> sailed in his new sloop "FAIREY FOX". ~~King Feisal and Uffa Fox-~~

On two successive days, the Duke won a race for cruising yachts. /

After the day's ~~sport~~ sport, Prince Philip and the King of Iraq came ashore at the Royal Yacht Squadron for the Regatta dinner, at which the Duke presided. /

Aboard the "Britannia" at Southampton, the Royal children <sup>START</sup> ~~their~~ <sup>THEIR HOLIDAY CRUISE.</sup>

~~THE~~ Queen and the Duke join the yacht at Barrow-in-Furness.

So ~~it's~~ "over the sea to Skye", and the romantic Islands of the West. /
