

London: ~~Before reaching~~ <sup>BEFORE THE</sup> complete agreement with France on the ~~presentation~~

presentation of the Suez Resolution to the United Nations, Sir Anthony Eden reaffirmed the joint standpoint of ~~the two countries~~ <sup>BRITAIN & FRANCE</sup>. SOUND.

Meanwhile, Egypt strives to strengthen her case at the United Nations by inviting foreign correspondents to see, and report, that shipping is still passing through the Canal. Even though the daily convoys have been reduced.

So, to New York, where the Security Council met to debate the Anglo-<sup>FRENCH</sup> ~~French~~ resolution and Egypt's counter-complaint, - which ~~was~~ ~~discussed~~ Mr. Shukari discussed with Mr. Sobeliev, the Soviet delegate.

As the ~~procedural~~ <sup>talks</sup> debate opened, Mr Cabot Lodge, <sup>the United States delegate -</sup> ~~the U.S. ambassador~~, (and representatives of Belgium and France) heard Sir Pierson Dixon outline the Anglo-French protest against Egypt's action in terminating international control of the Canal. SOUND.