

Aga Khan

France: The Newsreel Camera calls upon a leading world figure, the Aga Khan who, with the Begum, entertained British journalists at his Riviera home, near Cannes.

There has, of course, been much speculation concerning the Aga Khan's choice to succeed him as spiritual leader of his people.

And while the 81 year-old Leader skilfully evaded the point at issue - the Begum was content to feed her pet birds in the Springlike sunshine.

New Archbishop

London: A welcome from all Catholics in England and Wales goes to the Most Rev. Dr. Godfrey - soon to take up his new appointment as Archbishop of Westminster - in succession to Cardinal Griffin.

Born in Liverpool, Dr Godfrey was for fifteen years Apostolic Delegate - the Pope's personal representative in Britain.

Fashions from the Sunny South

Dare we ask - thinking of those summer holidays yet? If so, here's a preview, from the sunny Bahamas, of the 1957 trend in swimsuit fashions. But look, jingle bells on her toes. A seasonal note that could be a long-range weather forecast.

Anyway, if you can't face our summer - this nautical outfit is just right for a holiday cruise to the...Bahamas.
