

2481

Wimbledon: The heat is on - for championship rivals as Britain's Michael Davis and Neale Fraser of Australia, fight a sizzling Centre Court duel - for a place in the last sixteen.

The left-handed ~~quack~~ Australian soon took the first two sets. But Britain's number one hit back in brilliant style - ~~squaring the match~~ to square the match - two sets all.

Then came disappointment. Fraser reaches set point. And clinches the match - after a stirring five-set battle.

~~Fraser~~ ^A doubles brought a great Wimbledon ovation for a famous veteran, Jean Borotra (~~taxi~~ wearing trousers) playing with Pierre Darmon.

Their rivals were Britain's Roger Becker and Australian R.N. Howe, who ~~teamed well to win in three straight sets.~~ teamed well to win in three straight sets. But the cheers were for that ageless wonder of the court - Jean Borotra..