

Switzerland: To his lakeside villa, near Geneva, came the last tributes of the Ismaili Moslem community to their spiritual leader, the Aga Khan.

And from all parts of the Eastern world - Ismaili delegates came to mourn a wise and kindly leader....And to pay homage to the Aga Khan's own choice as his successor, Prince Karim - the elder son of Aly Khan. Attending family counsels is Sa'ruddin - who has postponed his marriage to Miss Nina Dyer...

While ex-model Bettina leaves for the villa to join Prince Aly Khan at ^a family conference.

It is reported that during the next seven years - Prince Karim will be "guided" by his father, Aly, and the Begum... 2

So, as the Aga Khan the Fourth, the young Harvard scholar will, (as his grandfather decreed), bring the modern outlook to his ancestral charge - the welfare of millions of Ismaili Moslems, all over the world.
