

Proudly wearing this school cap, an eight year-old boy will shortly begin his first term at Cheam School, in Hampshire.

There, the joint headmasters, Mr Beck and Mr Wheeler will shape the democratic education of the boy - who was born to be King. (.)

So Prince Charles will start his innings at a Prep School - following in his father's footsteps - both at the School and on the playing field.

Over three hundred years old, Cheam School moved from Surrey, in 1934 - and Prince Charles may well occupy the well-worn desk - once used by his father...

In the modern kitchen - good plain food is prepared for the pupils.

There will be between eighty and ninety boarders ~~TO SIT DOWN IN~~ ~~THE DINING ROOM.~~

Rising at 7-15 am. the new boy will soon learn the order of the bath-room, first come first served!

~~In the dormitories there are no springs on the beds~~

About ten boys ~~will~~ share each dormitory; ~~and there are no springs on~~
THERE IS A BASKET EACH FOR CLOTHES
BY THE WAY. THE BEDS HAVE NO SPRINGS!
the bed is a toughening up process for the boy from

Mr Balderson