Childrens' Art

London: Centre-piece of the Tenth National Exhibition of Childrens' Art at the Royal Institute Galleries, was this colourful canvas of ~~"Tigers in the Jungle"~~ "Tigers in the Jungle" - A collective effort by the Kingston Primary School - Cambridgeshire.

Other ~~amazing~~ ^{near, Kalle} exhibits were those submitted in the five-to-seven age group - part of four thousand entries ^{FOR} in this show - sponsored by the Sunday Pictorial.

"Cafe Scene" won a £300 Art Training Award for Douglas Boyd of Walton-on-Thames. A similar prize went to Diane Thubron of Durham - a student in the modern school.

Malayan Independence

In Kuala Lumpur - a Nation had assembled for ^{its day} ~~the making~~ of history, when the Duke of Gloucester (representing the Queen), arrived for ~~the~~ Malaya's ceremony of independence.

During the colourful Proclamation rites, the Duke handed over the Articles of Independence to the Federation - which now becomes the twelfth member of the Commonwealth.

So - under Britain's wise guidance - Malaya has ~~achieved Nationhood~~ ^{graduated to Nationhood} and her peoples voice the proud right of freedom. SOUND.

Selwyn Lloyd

Spain: A welcome ^{break} respite from the chill blasts of cold-war diplomacy. Mr Selwyn Lloyd, the Foreign Secretary ^{HAS BEEN ENJOYING} ~~and~~ a holiday in the warm sunshine of the Costa Brava...

And there's time to show his prowess at skittles - before journeying to Yugoslavia - for his meeting with President Tito.../
