Hat Fashions

London: ~~(Nother)~~ <sup>NOTHING</sup> goes to a woman's head quite so quickly as a new hat fashion - especially when the humble beret becomes a glamorous black and fawn creation.

This was a display by Jean Barthe, the famous Paris designer, and these striking wide-brimmed models proved extremely popular.

In contrast, Simone Mirman featured this <sup>castly</sup> ~~85~~ guinea creation in white ermine and black velvet. And another close-fitting style in ocelot fur in her Autumn and winter collection.

This white and grey ostrich bonnet was inspired by those worn by Queen ~~Nefertiti~~ <sup>of ancient Egypt.</sup>

Turkeys

Canada: Here's a reminder that ~~there are only about sixty shopping days~~ <sup>Christmas is coming.</sup> to Christmas. 87,000 turkeys - (all getting double rations, we hope) at one of the biggest turkey farms, in Canada.

With a growing appetite, ~~young~~ <sup>this</sup> five year old David Cartley is getting impatient. But the gobblers don't seem to be worrying.....not yet!

Eisenhower

~~That~~ <sup>Visiting the atomic submarine "Seawolf" was</sup> Rhode Island: ~~a distinguished soldier, now resident in the White House,~~ <sup>who lost no time in climbing down the hatch.</sup> President Eisenhower climbed down the hatch, when he visited the atomic submarine "Seawolf".

~~Inspecting~~ <sup>Inspecting</sup> the torpedo room, (while the "Seawolf" was cruising at a depth of sixty feet) the President made a thorough tour of the vessel.

~~A~~ <sup>A</sup> new experience for the Commander-in-Chief - who visited his first underwater craft - thirty years ago.

Train Crash

Nigeria: Early morning disaster shattered the Lagos-to-Kano express, when the engine and all six coaches ploughed into a sixty-foot wide torrent - twenty miles North of Ibadan.

Volunteers (who ~~rushed to the spot~~) smashed their way <sup>through</sup> ~~from~~ the debris to give first aid to the injured - before they were <sup>evacuated</sup> ~~evacuated~~ to hospitals. <sup>lost?</sup> Twenty people ~~lost~~ their lives - with over 120 injured in this railway tragedy - when torrential rains washed away the track...
