██████████ St. Peter's, Eaton Square,...another important mile-stone in the life of speed ace Stirling Moss.

For here, a charming co-driver, twenty-two year old Katie Molson, was joining him...to speed along the road to married happiness.../5

Stirling's sister, Pat, was one of the bridesmaids, and famous racing colleagues, Mike Hawthorne and Peter Collins (who were ushers) preserved a right of way for the British Champion and his Canadian bride.../

So Stirling wins another prize...exchanging the laurel leaves for the traditional rose-petals.../

Then, with one for the road - the Speed King and his bride crawled through rush-hour London to the reception at the Savoy.../
