

Nehru in India

India: To honour the memory of a great leader, ~~Mr~~ Pandit Nehru ~~the~~ ~~Prime Minister~~, makes his way to an ancient fortress, near Pratapgph.
There, at the scene of his greatest battle stands a statue to the famous ~~Chhatrapati Sivaji, the Maharattrian chief,~~ ~~the~~ Sivaji.

The Premier uncovered the commemorative plaque - the symbolic unveiling of the statue to the 18th century hero who led India's fight against the dreaded Moghul invaders.

Animal vaudeville

Hanover: In vaudeville, ~~the animals~~ - all the animals are trying to get into the act...

THE COCKEREL MAY RULE THE ROOST, BUT HERE THEY'RE A TEAM OF GOOD TROOPERS. LET'S HOPE
the cat doesn't get the last laugh.

Just look at this act. They're riding high. No hands and top of the bill
A FESTIVE TREAT FOR HANOVER CHILDREN, BUT AS IN ANY OTHER TOWN
the bareback rider LEAPS INTO popularity...

Young motorists

France: Here's some minor road traffic in Lyons - driving to the first International Children's Motor Show.

But one small car gets into a big argument with a lorry. The bully Bully.

At the Show, over fifty cars were on view - with exhibits by such leading firms as Mercedes and Maserati...

And though some were powered on soap-box principles... Remember, they'll they may take the
be a shortage of grand prix cars, next year.

Back to Germany, where radio is playing a new part in road safety.

At a leading driving-school, ~~(yes, there are schools for motor-cyclists~~ ~~and scooter owners)~~ the instructors found it difficult to teach - whilst riding on the pillion.

Now, through radio, they follow - (at a very safe distance) instructing the learners in road drill. It's less painful, too!