

2501

Press Photographers

London: The Men who capture the news with a camera entered two thousand exhibits in the "British Press Pictures of the Year" competition. A
 And a keen photographer, Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, presented the premier award ~~to~~ (the Hector McNeil Trophy) to Mr Terence Fincher...
 Among his entries was "Lord Hailsham taking that dip at Brighton" /S
 Monty entered two pictures of mountain scenery... <sup>AND</sup> ~~he~~ received a diploma **/

~~And the Vice-Chief Honorary Press Photographer, Extraordinary~~

Ski-jumping

America: Winter sets in but the ski-jumpers are out in force on Bear Mountain...getting in some much-needed practice in the Torger Tokle Memorial Meet. (3)
 And ~~they~~ <sup>WHILE</sup> champions were falling from grace, veteran Art Tokle sailed away with the top honours... **/

Earthquake

From Western Persia come ~~some~~ pictures of the terrible devastation when violent earth tremors shattered twenty-nine towns and villages. In the worst-damaged areas - covering some 2,000 square miles - homes were reduced to rubble.
 Relief centres have been set up for the homeless. The death-roll is feared to be in the region of two thousand. **/

Ike in Paris

Paris: ~~With~~ The good news that NATO is to strengthen the defensive shield of the West - coincide with President Eisenhower's visit to S.H.A.P.E. headquarters. <sup>HAS HOME FOR SOME YEARS. THE PRESIDENT HAS A SIMPLE REASON FOR THIS RETURN VISIT.</sup> **/
 In happy mood, the former Supreme Commander renewed old friendships **/
~~and~~ BEFORE RETURNING TO WASHINGTON. **/