Wedding

Croydon: Treading the path to happiness, a smiling bride, Madeleine Herbert arrives at St. George's Church, Shirley.

But behind the smile - there's a story of courage and determination... Badly-injured in the recent Lewisham Rail Disaster, Madeleine was determined to marry her sweetheart - Mr Peter Smith.

The ceremony had to be delayed a week; but here they are - sharing a joyous moment at the reception. May there be many happy milestones for the girl who conquered adversity with a smile.

America:

America: L.V.T.U. spells monster. A mechanical sea monster - the U.S. Navy's newest amphibious landing vehicle that towers twenty-one feet ^{high} - and weighs 100 tons fully loaded.

This new invasion craft can carry the heaviest armoured vehicles. With a combination of propellers and treads - it's at home on land or water.

San Francisco

San Francisco: A happy festive homecoming for over six hundred U.S. servicemen, back from the Far East. But one man arrives with a Japanese wife and tragic memories. It's Private William Girard, the convicted killer of a Japanese woman on a shooting range. Booked for a dishonourable discharge - Girard comes home... ~~to forget~~ to forget.

Italy

Italy: The Church of the North American College, in Rome, celebrates a day of fulfillment - as young students from North America are ordained - after completing their theological studies.

Forty-one students took part in the ceremony of Consecration - and many relatives made the long journey to Rome - to attend the service.

Finally, with a spiritual blessing from the Rector to ^{encourage} encouragement them - the new Priests begin their chosen life of service.
