

Plane returns from captivity

SB.
2506.

8th January 1958

Hampshire: Hurn Airport spelt home after a terrifying ordeal for the crew of this British Skymaster freighter. The plane was flying cargo from Dusseldorf to Singapore when it was forced down by Red Albanian ~~jet~~ jet fighters.

~~Released by the Albanians~~ ^{later released the Skymaster - and} ~~when it was established that the plane flew~~

~~off course~~ - a large crowd watched the pilot, Captain Kozubski (a Polish-^{born} ~~flyer~~ ^{formerly} with the R.A.F.), reunited with his family.

A welcome home, too, for air hostess Margaret Clancy - the only woman in the crew of six - ~~two~~ ^{who} were detained for four days.

Happy to be home - the crew said that they had been well treated and that hundreds of Albanians gave them a terrific send-off...
