

58,000 - the biggest Cup crowd of the day - proves that good football really pays.

At the Hawthorns, West Bromwich Albion (in the stripes) kicked off against Nottingham Forest. The Fourth Round battle for the soccer connoisseur...

And what a brilliant clash it proved to be

~~The Hawthorns see the chess-board as~~ First Nottingham Forest (the club who pioneered soccer nearly one hundred years ago) and then West Bromwich launched their attacking ^{moves} gambit.

Early in the second half, Imlach schemed a goal for the Forest.

^{Then} an Albion counter-attack touched off a four-goals in nine minutes spell..

First Bobby Robson equalised.

Then, the ace goal-poacher, Kevan dribbled through - a brilliant goal!

Another attack ^{also} ~~the ball~~ And the arch-schemer Ronnie Allén slams it home.

Albion Three. Forest One. But it's far from check-mate, as Tom Wilson scores for the Forest.. Much to the disgust of Jimmy Sanders.

Then, to round off the goal blitz, Tom Wilson banged home a penalty...

A three-all draw. A soccer ~~frank~~ ^{lesson} straight from the text-book.
