

Austin "Gipsy"

Surrey: The tank-testing ground at Bagshot Heath was chosen for the first public trial of a new all-purpose transport ~~vehicle~~ <sup>vehicle</sup>. And whether it was climbing ~~one~~ <sup>the Gipsy</sup> ~~steep~~ <sup>of one in two</sup> gradients, or negotiating the toughest terrain - this "go-anywhere," "do-almost anything" ~~utility~~ <sup>utility</sup> truck came through with flying colours.

~~Years of technical research have produced a reliable, all steel vehicle - suitable for agricultural and industrial use.~~

~~Available with either a petrol or a diesel engine, the "Gipsy" proves that the "go-anywhere" claim!!!~~ <sup>now</sup>

Western Germany

Western Germany: Having completed their initial training, small Naval units put to sea, off Flensburg, to take part in realistic battle manoeuvres.

The squadron is made up of ~~the~~ <sup>new</sup> assault craft, built since the war. The chief object of the exercise was to ~~provide~~ <sup>provide</sup> firing torpedo firing practice - using a small target boat... The torpedoes they used - were made in Britain.

Partisan anniversary

Rome: To mark the tenth anniversary of the Constitution of the Italian Republic, war-time partisans were given permission to commemorate their comrades, who died in the struggle for liberation.

350 ~~veterans~~ <sup>veterans</sup> (all holders of the Partisans' Gold Medal) paraded to the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, where they paid homage to those who died. ~~Members~~ <sup>Members</sup> of the Fascist Party, however, still regard the partisans as traitors: and this day of homage was marred by ugly demonstrations.

London Airport

London Airport: The passenger list of this York aircraft, arriving from Northern Rhodesia, was truthfully a mixed bag... ~~on board, were~~ <sup>on board, were</sup> ~~140 animals, of many different species, bound mostly for the Chester Zoo.~~

~~The list included a~~ <sup>140 ANIMALS IN ALL, BOUND MOSTLY FOR</sup> ~~the first of this antelope species to leave Africa), and some baby crocodiles.~~ <sup>THE CHESTER ZOO</sup> ~~lion cubs, just three months old, were bound for a famous circus...~~ <sup>THESE ARE BABY CROCODILES - AND</sup>
