Manchester United V. Nottingham Forest

24th Feb. 1958

Old Trafford 's biggest crowd since the war - 66,000 - provided just the encouragement ~~What~~ Manchester United needed - when they resumed their League programme - with Nottingham Forest as their opponents.

The cup triumph over Sheffield Wednesday resulted in an unchanged team - a vote of confidence and a morale booster for the seven youngsters....
Now they faced the skill and craft of the Forest - <sup>who are</sup> playing in white shirts.

A goal behind at half-time (<sup>Lad</sup> Stuart Inlach scored a good one for the ~~Forest~~ Forest) United faced a tough task

The result <sup>hard</sup> a draw - one-all; The makeshift United <sup>team is</sup> ~~sixxxxxxxxix~~ battling/to maintain a proud soccer tradition.
