

Snowbound Britain: A sudden blizzard: and the worst snow conditions for many years dislocate road and rail travel.

Once again, we were taken by surprise: Over ~~two~~ ^{one} hundred ^{main} roads were ~~blocked - and~~ ^{blocked - and} ~~hundreds~~ ^{non} of trains ~~running~~ many hours late.

So Britain dug her way out - more often than not, using a shovel: ^{just}

~~Yes, those who have worked to free the snowbound traffic amazed~~
 ~~Surely the country, whose recent scientific achievements have amazed the~~ ~~world can find a modern answer to costly, winter conditions that hinder~~
 ~~our economic recovery?~~

~~But you'd think in this modern age that with a bit of advance planning we wouldn't be taken by~~
 ~~surprise every time it snows!~~

Cuban Grand Prix

Havana: World Champion racing driver Juan Fangio is released by Cuban rebels who kidnapped him ~~as a protest against their country's lack of~~ ^{because they said, their government did not} ~~interest in the growing~~ ^{interest in the growing} unemployment.

~~The Cuban Government had sponsored the Grand Prix~~

The Government had sponsored the Cuban Grand Prix. ~~During~~ ^{During} the seventh lap ~~one~~ ^{also} one car skidded - and plunged into the crowd.

A tragic ~~report~~ ^{also} of the 1955 Le Mans disaster. On this occasion, eight ~~people~~ ^{were} ~~paraphrased~~ died, ~~nix~~ ^{were} thirty-four/injured. The race was abandoned, with Stirling Moss, the leader, declared the winner.

Surf carnival

Australia: A flotilla of little ships escorted the State Barge when Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother arrived, for the great Surf Carnival, ~~at~~ ^{at} Manly.

The Grand Parade featured 2,000 life-savers - all members of the ~~organisations~~ ^{organisations} that maintain constant patrols on the beaches, around Sydney.

~~This annual contest pays tribute to their courage in saving~~

This annual contest pays tribute to their courage in saving ~~many~~ ^{MANY} lives every year - besides providing a thrilling spectacle ~~of~~ ^{of} ~~water sports~~ - in the mountainous seas...