

Well, this is what it looked like at Aintree 25 years ago - the 1933 Grand National. ago - the 1933 Grand National.

There was a big field. And one dark horse - (born at Kellsboro, in Ireland) - that had been sold for a pound...

34 runners: but at the last fence - two Jacks led the field. Pelorus Jack and Kellsboro Jack.

And here's the winner, NOT THE LOOSE HORSE BUT Mrs Clark's Kellsboro Jack. 25 to one. The Grand National winner that was bought for a pound!
