

contd.

Churchill home

An airliner from Nice brought ^{visible proof} ~~the good news in person~~ that Sir Winston Churchill is fit and well again.

The 83 year-old Statesman was, ^{came home from the South of France} ~~no doubt, glad to be home again~~ after his ^{illness} ~~attack of pneumonia and pleurisy~~ whilst on holiday in the South of France. ^{and to find winter still hanging on here.}

Accompanied by Lady Churchill, Sir Winston drove off to ^{the} ~~enjoy~~ ^{the} ~~recuperation~~ at his country home at Chartwell, Kent.

And here is the man of the week - possibly the man of the year - Mr Heathcote Amory, Chancellor of the Exchequer. Sitting at his desk at No. 11 Downing Street, ^{with that famous Budget box beside him} he looks sympathetic enough to the tax-payer. But Chancellors are judged by what they do - not just by what they say.