After five false starts, they finally got away in the Washington International at Laurel Park, Maryland. Ten top money-spinners from seven countries. That's Tudor Era hitting the front.

Now we're slowing down the picture because that starting trouble was nothing compared with what happened ~~at the start~~ ^{LATER}. Watch Tudor Era, the leader. See how he crosses the others to ~~take the lead~~ ^{CHANGE POSITION}.

Ballymoss, Britain's hope, is lying fourth. (3)

^{NUMBER 9} Tudor Era was exported to America: he couldn't win a race in Britain.

~~BECAUSE OF THAT CROWDING ON THE FIRST BEND OF HIS LINE, HE CAME TO THE RACE. Making an objection after the race,~~

Sailor's Guide's jockey called it "repeated fouling" ~~MADE AN OBJECTION AFTER THE RACE.~~

Laurel Park has sharp bends. With first run along the short straight,

Tudor Era won by 3½ lengths from Sailor's Guide and Ballymoss...

Then Australian jockey Howard Grant ~~(riding Sailor's Guide)~~ made his objection.

SAILOR'S GUIDE

The race film convinced the judges. ~~He~~ was awarded the race:
