

This was Riba de Lago, a ~~small~~ Spanish ^{village} town that disappeared in one of the worst disasters in living memory.....

A dam 1500 feet above the village burst and sent a wall of water thundering through the streets, smashing everything in its path and leaving utter desolation in its wake.....

This church stood long enough to save two lives before it collapsed - Two, but 210 people are missing and presumed ~~to be~~ dead.....

The search for the missing went on but with little hope ~~of finding anything but bodies~~, for in this tragedy there were no injured, only the dead and the survivors.....Survivors who worked in the wreckage of their homes, trying to salvage what remained.....

Wheat from the harvest.....

Food stuffs taken from where home used to be.....

For a lone dog this is home. It doesn't matter that the house isn't there.....

This girl was out of town when it happened. - Where is my house? - Where are my ~~parents~~? - They promised to wait for me?.....

Nothing but wreckage remains of Riba de Lago - ~~And work to clear up and start again.....~~

But the spirit to build again
Lives on.
