

NEW GUINEA..... JANRAID AIR BASE.

Jap bombers over New Guinea. Australians and Americans at an advance air base swing their guns into action, and the battle is on!

A bit of luck for the enemy; direct hits on a fuel dump. Patrol and lubricating oil going up in flames. Fireworks fixating for Tojo. Not very serious, but bad enough.

Aussies to the rescue. The 'roll out the barrels' to safety.

A ~~kick~~ hot job, but just another of the tasks which fall to fighting men as part of the day's work.

This is one of the occasions when Tojo's bombers scored, but it's far too late to cripple the Allied drive Northward and too little to prevent us knocking the G.K. out of Tokyo.
