

42-79

INDIANS AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

The King honoured the 4th Indian Division when he inspected, in the inner quadrangle of Buckingham Palace, the contingent which is now visiting this country. Colonel Scott, who commands these splendid warriors from India, presents them to Their Majesties. Talking to them, the King and Queen heard again about some of the exploits which won the Division glory in Libya and Tunisia.

SUBADAR LALBAHADUR THAPA, who had the ribbon of the V.C. pinned on his tunic by the King during His Majesty's visit to North Africa, now receives the actual cross. The Gurkha officer is wearing the revolver and Kluckri he used to such good effect at the Wadi Akarit.