

2-08500/
44-13

JUSTICE COMES TO AN ITALIAN VILLAGE,

The village is FRISNA near Ortona - the person, ANTONIO FINAMORE, a Fascist Party Boss, brought to justice before a British Military Court. The Presiding officer is Captain Henderson a Scotsman. In the dim light of a small back room we see Antonio Finamore facing the accusations of his fellow villagers. There is an 82 year old farmer who suffered extortions and hardships at the hands of this Fascist fox. One by one they testify. Finamore made this mother of three children go without food for three days. Antonio Finnamore, the small-town Mussolini - blinks hard.

Captain Henderson stands and delivers sentence. Finamore was indicted with many crimes wholly in keeping with Fascism. He is led away under armed Guard back to his cell. So injustice is brought to justice in one small corner of Italy.