JUNIOR CHAMPIONS.

Third and final round in a Senior contest in the London Federation of Boys' Clubs CHAMPIONSHIPS AT THE Queensbury Club. Hudson (in the dark singlet) versus Lench in the eleven stone class. Tomorrow's champions-in-the-making showing style and giving a fine display of boxing.

End of the fight, with Hudson gaining a points decision.

The winner is presented with his cup by Sir Alfred Pickford at the conclusion of the bout.

Now we'll take a look at one of the junior finals. The six stone seven pounds class, with Ward (wearing the dark singlet) matching punches with Fletcher. Two young boxers going at it like a couple of veterans. This is their second round. The Standard of boxing leaves nothing to be desired.

The Seconds go to work on Fletcher who's down a bit on points.

Beginning of the third round. Ward makes a false start. He clips Fletcher when it should have been a handshake. No ill feelings, so the lads get down to it. Ward concentrating on adding to his points ahead.

On the final gong the Judges verdict is ... a win on points for Ward. This tournament has given us a glimpse into the nursery of our future Boxing Champions. A pre-view of some of the postwar Stars of the ring.
