The British Submarine "Tally Ho" is home from a cruise in Far Eastern waters. On her Jolly Reger, twenty-one Jap kills record the history of a highly profitable twelve months.

"Tally Ho's" officers and their chief, Commander Bennington, did not come back without a souvenir. This piece of a Jap Torpedo Boat propeller tells the tale of one victory. Portrait of men looking forward to leave.

Here's one chap sure to be popular ashore. "Tally Ho's" record, on her first trip, was won by a crew of the youngest men in the Submarine Service.
