

45-105
2-FP8001

PEACE ON EARTH

Generations of Father Christmases have made a special call at London's famous Great Ormond St. Children's Hospital. The little black bag the toys are in is a clue to this man's identity. Father Christmas always knows what children want - but a reminder helps to make sure.

It's such bad luck to be ill, and at Christmas, of all times.

These kiddies may be away from home but doctors and nurses bring that grand old Christmas spirit right here into the hospital.

For the old folk the Christmas season brings treasured memories and the chance to show that at this time of the year, no one's a day older than he feels. The young 'uns don't have all the fun.

As the bells once more give out their joyful message, there is something quietly lovely in this picture. In the dim light of a country church, an old man - a shepherd - gives thanks for the gift of peace on earth and goodwill toward men.
