UNITED NATIONS ALBERT HALL WELCOME

Britain's greeting to the United Nations packed every corner of London's Albert Hall. Presiding, was Field Marshal Alexander.

SPEECH

One of the highlights of this welcome to U.N.O. was heralded by the skirl of the pipes as Scots Guards Pipers play in the flags of the fifty-one United Nations.

NATURAL SOUND

After the ceremony of Remembrance and Dedication the Archbishop of Canterbury made a moving speech in which he pledged the full support of the church to the work of the United Nations Association. In the course of it Dr. Fisher said:

SPEECH

In words which have that deep sincerity that comes from the heart, Mrs. Roosevelt also spoke.
