

2-194101
46/98

SWEDS BEAT THE SWISS

At Stockholm Stadium, the Sweden v. Switzerland ice-hockey international. From the start the Swedes pile in with avalanche attacks which start the scoring.

Increasing their pressure again, the Swedes break through the Swiss defence to score a second time.

In the last period Switzerland puts on a spurt and scores. But the Swedes are out for victory. With only a few minutes to go they score again, to win 3-2.

Fastest sport in the world, this is the play that draws the crowds to British ice stadiums.