SCHOOL LEAVING AGE IS 15

Education Minister George Tomlinson visits Brexbourne Modern School. Under the new education act the school leaving age is raised from 14 to 15 as from this month. Every child in Britain is now offered the opportunity to pass through primary, secondary and further stages with no tuition fees to pay. At Pathe's invitation, the Minister finds out for himself, what boys and girls at school think of the new plan for education.
