Pathe News offers its congratulations to Queen Mary on her 80th birthday. Many happy, and some tragic memories have filled her crowded life. These are the latest pictures taken of her at the Chelsea Flower Show. There are few signs of her eighty years and she still takes an active interest in public life. Britain salutes a grand and gracious lady. SFF101

In Banton, Dumbartonshire, meet Dado Marino 31 year old Hawaiian-born boxer. He is due to meet Jackie Paterson for the world's flyweight championship. After his six-day, 9000 mile air journey from Hawaii, Marino, America's No. 1 flyweight is out to take away the world title from Jackie Paterson. The Glasgow boxer is training in his native city, 20 miles away from his opponent.

plete with his Alsatian dog, Paterson has settled down to serious training. Let's hope that the Scottish boy, who is Britain's only world title holder, will come out on top against the challenger from America.

In Washington, the American celebrities Golf Tournament gets under way with General Dwight Eisenhower and Admiral Chester Nimitz leading the competitors. Also swinging the club are ex-heavyweights Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney. With them are - Bobby Jones - Gene Sarazen - Walter Hagen - once the big three of American golf. Driving off is Jack Dempsey.

Hildegard shows the woman's angle. And here is Sarazen, ex-big time golfer, showing some of his old mastery. Also playing - Bing Crosby - famed in Hollywood for his golfing skill. Caddyng for him, Eddy Arnold, from the film city.

The master of military control, General Ike doesn't seem to be able to get his handicap down. Neither can Bing.

That's just one of the new fashions in motor cycling. The demonstrators are the Royal Signals team at their riding display at Gatterick, Yorkshire. This is the baby motor cycle, as used by airborne troops.

A special note for the Sergeants' Mess - it's the latest in serving a beer.

The tricks put over by these signal boys come easy to them - looks as if they've been doing them all their lives.

In this sequence a motor cycle seat makes a good barber's chair for a real Sergeant's hair cut.

And here are 14 of the boys together. They are booked to appear in June at Olympia's Royal Tournament.
