

3-21-50
48/49

MR. STRACHEY TALKS ABOUT NUTS

Docking at Southampton's Marine Airport, a Sunderland Flying Boat brings back to Britain the man whose business is nuts. Waiting to welcome him is Mrs. Strachey, wife of Food Minister John. On his return from the East African groundnut plantations (whose output is scheduled to ensure Britain's future fat supplies) the Food Minister answers our reporter's questions.