

SCOUTS JAMBOREE

Eleven thousand Boy Scouts of a dozen different nations from Fiji to Lithuania arrive at Wanga Park, Victoria, for the Pan-Pacific Jamboree. In one morning they erect a complete city - each contingent bringing its own "little bit of home." A UNO in miniature, healthy appetites and hearty good-fellowship are the watchword. Moslem prayers are that the world may follow suit.

At the world's most peaceful assembly, New Zealanders perform a native war haka ... ..

Finally, 12 days of international goodwill close with the Maori stick game.
