WILF PICKLES REMEMBERS A XMAS PROMISE

It's a great day for 200 youngsters from the Bramhope Orphanage near Leeds. Deprived of a Xmas party because of scarlet fever at the home, their host remembered his promise and gives the party five months late. Here he is - genial Wilfred Pickles!

You just can't help having a go when Pickles is around!

For Leeds' orphans (everyone a Pickles fan) it's an occasion they'll long remember.
