ELECTIONS AT BRUSSELS June 26th 1949

General view around the offices (the elections took place without any manifestations of any sort. The people of Belgium voted calmly and with indifference.

While Mr Spaak ~~is~~ Prime Minister and President on UNO votes in his quater, ~~the~~ Queen Elizabeth votes in the rue Van Rollebecke, center of the town.

The last people to vote and the files are shut.

Immediatly after 2 o'clock last limit for the elections, the new office swears that the secrecy of the votes will not be violated and the classification starts.
