BRITISH FIND ROMANCE IN U.S.A.

David, Marquis of Milford Haven and his American fiancée Mrs. Romaine Simpson arrive in New York aboard the Queen Elizabeth - bound for a Washington altar. They'll be married in November. American wedding bells also ring for actress Sarah Churchill and London photographer Anthony Beauchamp. The couple met when Miss Churchill - Winston's eldest daughter - sat for her portrait. In great secrecy they got engaged, married and honeymooned in Georgia. Within three days, they were back in New York, because Sarah Churchill's Broadway show must, of course, go on.
