1. SV Churchill seated on chair at fireplace set, speaks :-
 Scene 2 Take 1.
 "Ladies and gentlemen, [the vote you will give on February 23 is of profound importance to your future, your homes and families, and our country are all involved. The choice is plain. Are we now to take another plunge into Socialist regimentation, or shall we return to the high-road of freedom of enterprise, and, with proper safeguards opportunity for all ?
 Under the Socialist system, where everything is controlled by an all-powerful State, we cannot hope to uphold our standard of life and secure employment for the fifty millions crowded in our small island. If we are to be independent of foreign aid, we must rally all the genius contrivance, initiative, and diligence of our people, in a new surge of impulse and courage.] The Conservative and National Liberal Parties set in the forefront of their policy a basic standard below which not even the weakest shall be allowed to fall. On this broad foundation all should be free to make the best of themselves and their country and to rise by their own exertions in the life of a free and active society. It is an uphill road we have to tread, but if we reject the cramping, narrowing path of Socialist restrictions we shall surely find the way under wise and tolerant government to those broad uplands where plenty, peace and justice reign."

3. SV Churchill speaking.... Scene 4 Take 1.
 "The Conservative and National Liberal Parties set in the forefront of their policy a basic standard below which not even the weakest shall be allowed to fall. On this broad foundation all should be free to make the best of themselves and their country and to rise by their own exertions in the life of a free and active society". Clears throat and says... "You'll have to leave that bit out" and continues...
 "It is an uphill road we have to tread, but if we reject the cramping, narrowing path of Socialist restrictions we shall surely find the way under wise and tolerant government to those broad uplands where plenty, peace and justice reign".
 "I think you'll have to do what you can with that".
 Picture runs out and continues track only...
 Wright says "Its very difficult to cut out a sentence like that".
 Churchill says "Do you want me to do it all again - I thought you were putting it in sentence by sentence. It's all right for a film star but I'm not a film star".
4. CU Churchill seated, speaking ... Scene 5 Take 1.
 "On this broad foundation all should be free to make the best of themselves and their country and to rise by their own exertions in the life of a free and active society. It is an uphill road we have to tread, but if we reject the cramping narrowing path of Socialist restriction we shall surely find the way under wise and tolerant government to those broad uplands where plenty peace and justice reign".
5. CU Churchill, speaking... Scene 6 Take 1.
 "We are the chosen few....I can't remember it, you see I have one of the best memories that you can have but you put me off"
 Wright says.. "I know, Sir, that's quite all right - look at the camera and start again, Sir".
 We are the chosen few, all of you will be damned, There is no place in heaven for you, we can't have Heaven crammed.
 I thought it was an amusing quotation that I read this morning - now try this (clears throat) an experiment with my voice, you see this is just a talk privately - While the great body of the Roman Empire was weakened by violence or undermined by slow decay, a pure and humble religion (picture runs out, track continues...)

6. CU Churchill speaking...

Scene 7 Take 1.

"Where are we now ? We have reached a crisis in our history. The vote that you will give on February 23rd will profoundly affect the whole future of your home, your family and your country. We have a choice before us which is plain - plain and clear for all to see. On the one hand we may take a plunge, a further plunge into the creation of the Socialist state - all powerful, planning all, providing all, arranging all, and controlling even the small details of the daily lives of all our people.

On the other hand we may regain the broad highroad of free enterprise of initiative, daring with rewards justified, the success and diligence and thrift, and thus marching along with all the other nations of the English speaking world, we may surely find our way out of our present difficulties and arise again as a strong honoured independent state. And we may bring our people, the whole mass of our people, forward not delaying the strong for the weak, but enabling the strong to go back and bring the rearguard in, enabling the strong to aid the weak and help them. And thus our whole united nation, once so famous as a guide to other lands, will make its way forward on to those broad uplands where plenty, peace and justice reign."
