

THE PIDDINGTONS KEEP MILLIONS GUESSING

Off on a mystery trip from Filton airfield, Bristol, goes a Stratocruiser. Its passenger of honour, Leslie Piddington, the female half of the husband-and-wife-team who each week baffle twenty million radio listeners. With the crew goes a Pathe cameraman, probing the secret behind the "Piddington story." This is to be their most exacting test yet. The object - to transmit a train of thoughts to Mrs. Piddington (20,000 feet up) from a studio in Piccadilly where, before judges Hugh Williams and Gladys Young, Sydney Piddington opens the proceedings.

SOUND

The subject to be transmitted is chosen at random and Piddington first hears of it from one of the judges. Can he transmit it to his wife?
