

EASTBOURNEWIGHTMAN HOPES GO WEST AGAIN

As Mrs. Attlee greets the winning American team there's not a lot to say about the match as a match other than the U.S. girls swept the board and so will take back the Cup they brought over to show us. The one bright spot we had to cheer was Betty Hilton's gallant fight against Wimbledon champion Louise Brough. She's leading 5-1 and match point in the first set.

Set to Betty - the only one the American girls have lost. Louise Brough took the second but finds the third a real battle.

From 5-2 against her, Betty's fought back to 6-5 ... Louise Brough serving.

Betty serves. Match point against her.

Well tried, Betty Hilton, we'll have to start calling you Mrs. Harrison now. Beating Louise Brough would have made a nice wedding present.
