

GRAVESENDQUADS BEAT THE KIDNIE FASHIONS

Stars of the "Young Idea" show in Port Gardens, Gravesend, are Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and their quads, three boys and a girl ... Kevin and Robin ... and Annette and Paul. It's a parade of fashions for the young, modelled by local children, except the quads who come from Edmonton.

Walking the dog ... only the dog won't; somebody's saying rude things about him.

He's only trying to get her onto the stage but she's just too bashful to have a bash. That won't help, sir! Now see what you've done!

He's so thrilled he can't eat apples for toffee! And now the quads. Annette wants to be different and finds an ardent supporter. She's taken in hand but the good little boys get their nighties taken off ... which is just what Annette wanted. Joking apart, they're a grand little foursome. And now it's time to say Squad - er - that is, Quads dismiss!
