

LONDON

CHURCHILL - 76 YEARS YOUNG

An iced-cake replica of the Churchill Arch in the new House of Commons arrives at Hyde Park Gate; flowers come from known and unknown; and messengers with telegrams. Now comes Mr. Anthony Eden, to congratulate his great chief and friend. And there's the Press waiting as the best known man in the world celebrates his 76th birthday.

On this day the nation salutes the man who saved us by his brave leadership. Even on his birthday some fanatical extremist has to shower him with political pamphlets. So long as we breed such men, for so long shall we be a great nation.
