- 6. M.S. '.. Chinese Communist regime by its action as well as by its statem ents has caused grave doubts to arise in the mids of people all over the world. What the United Nations now seek is an assurance of the peaceful intent of the regime at Pekin. More important than that assurance, it seeks deeds which will demonstrate that its intent is genuine. Only if these deeds are forthcoming can China's neighbours and the people of the world feel assured that peace and security will prevail in the Far East'.
