SOUTHAMPTON

From America the "Queen Elizabeth" brings world famous trophies for exhibition during the Festival. The America Cup for yachting - which Captain Lucas hands to the Mayor of Southampton - we've never held it since the schooner AMERICA won it exactly a hundred years ago. With it comes the Wightman tennis cup, the Philadelphia sculling Cup; and the Curtis Golf cup. Well, it's nice seeing them. Now let's go "all out" to win them.

ROME

At the Boys' Town of Don Bosco, just outside Rome, one thousand orphans cheer the arrival of Princess Elizabeth. Naturally, it's a great event in their young lives, and 6-years-old Luigi Malmigiano rises nobly to the occasion. In a three-minute speech elegant in word and gesture, Luigi makes the Princess sure of her welcome.

As the lilies are longer than himself, Luigi needs a little help with the presentation.

LONDON

Princess Margaret attends the Premiere at which C.S. Forrester's "Captain Horablower" makes its bow to the film world. Produced at Elstree, the film is a story of the Navy in Nelson's days. Appropriately, proceeds of the performance go to naval charities. In these difficult days, Royal interest is the only real encouragement that those who make the films in Britain receive.
