

TEMPLAR GETS MALAYA JOB

Back from America come Mr. Anthony Eden with reports of good work achieved over there and in Canada: and Ulster-born General Sir Gerald Templar newly appointed High Commissioner for Malaya. Former Vice-Chief of the Imperial General Staff, General Templar has a brilliant record as a tough fighter and skilled general. He returns with Mr. Eden after a flying visit to America for a conference with Mr. Churchill. His job is to end the fighting in Malaya. What are your plans, Sir Gerald?

"Well, now that I'm back in this country it's now my duty to report to the Colonial Secretary to learn as much as possible about my job and then to get out to Malaya as quickly as I possibly can."
