THE VICTORIA CROSS.

To be Decorated :—

Private William Speakman, The King's Own Scottish Borderers.

In Korea, on the 4th November, 1951, the enemy, in overwhelming numbers, attacked the positions held by the 1st Battalion, The King's Own Scottish Borderers, and fierce hand-to-hand fighting ensued. Private Speakman, learning that a part of the position was being over-run, on his own initiative, collected six other men and, quite regardless of the withering machine-gun fire, he led more than ten charges against the enemy. Eventually he was himself seriously wounded, but it was only after a direct order that he paused for a dressing to be applied to his wound. Then, undaunted, he immediately returned to his comrades and again led charge after charge. Not only was he responsible for causing enormous losses to the enemy but he so dominated the situation that he inspired his comrades to stand firm and fight the enemy to a stand-still. His gallantry and utter contempt of personal danger were beyond praise.
