

BACK WITH THE CUP

As the London train draws in, it's a big moment for Newcastle. Joe Harvey's back with the Cup - and nobody can hear what the Lord Mayor's saying. But as a club director he's just as excited as the whole town! In winning the Cup two years running, the United have done something that hasn't been done since Blackburn did it sixty years ago.

And so to their own ground at St. James's Park, with 50,000 cheering as Joe and his team make their way round the ground.

Now, from the grand-stand, skipper Joe Harvey tells the story of Newcastle's triumph:

"My Lord Mayor, lads and lasses, I don't know what I'm going to say now I've got home with it. Somebody asked me if they'd given it to us, but I told them that we'd beaten the best teams in the country ... and we've really earned it this time. I'd like to thank the lads for all they've done, kept together and fought right through to the end, and brought an honour back to Tyneside which I think will not be beaten again for a long, long time. Thank you very much."
